

Broader Impacts Workshop Series

WHAT ARE BROADER IMPACTS?

As one of the review criteria for the National Science Foundation, broader impacts are the potential of the research to benefit society and contribute to the achievement of specific, desired societal outcomes, including:

- Broadening Participation
- STEM Education
- Public Engagement
- Societal Well-Being
- STEM Workforce
- Partnerships
- National Security
- Economic Competitiveness
- Infrastructure

RESOURCES:

- NSF Broader Impacts:
<https://new.nsf.gov/funding/learn/broader-impacts>
- TAMU BI Resources:
<https://vpr.tamu.edu/research-development-services/education-and-outreach-expo/>
- ARIS BI Toolkit:
<https://aris.marine.rutgers.edu/>

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Click on event titles for registration and event description!

Q&A on the Anti-DEI Law and Grant Proposals

September 24, 2024 - 1:30 pm

Broader Impacts 101

October 29, 2024 - 12:00 pm

Owning Your Broader Impacts

November 19, 2024 - 12:00 pm

Broader Impacts 101

January 28, 2025 - 1:00 pm

Broader Research Impacts at Federal Agencies

April 22, 2025 - 1:00 pm

CALENDAR

<https://u.tamu.edu/RDSCalendar>